

Dear Parents,

Howdy everybody! Well, our first week of school is over! It's been a great week. We even had a field trip! We went to the Joslyn Castle in Omaha. It was so cool! We went there to celebrate the reading of our book The Whipping Boy! Thank you to all the parents that took time to help drive and supervise. We did start watching the movie version of the book, too.

REMINDER—All current immunizations, birth certificates, and physicals are due into us by the 1st of September.

UPDATE, on hot lunches! We have volunteers for pizza and burrito days. We will be starting hot lunch August 30th with Taco Inn Burritos. Every week in the newsletter the prices for hot lunch are listed. Next week prices for burritos and pizza will be listed. We still need someone to go and pick up subway for us. If you think you can please let us know.

georgestone.org---Just an FYI you will find many things on our website. We have our newsletters, fun pictures, announcements, and important calendar events. Take time to explore our website.

Dates To Remember:
